

COMING SOON (AGAIN): SMOKE ON THE MOUNTAIN

Homeplace on Green River

In the merry month of..... May 2019

Smoke on the Mountain returns to Homeplace

They are back. The stage at the show barn at Homeplace on Green River will come alive again May 25 with the return of the Sanders family in Smoke on the Mountain. Y'all come out to look in on the Sander's and Pastor Oglethorpe as they replay their lively Gospel music in the sanctuary of the Mount Pleasant, North Carolina Baptist Church on that Saturday night in June 1938.

The family of six sing, and give their testimonials through a happy evening of music and good fun. It's a respectable musical comedy that is one of the most often produced shows world-wide. The evening will include a fish dinner prepared by the Columbia First Baptist Church.

This will be the third time Smoke on the Mountain has been performed as part of Homeplace on Green River's Shakespeare in the Barn series. Smoke on the Mountain and the fish dinner were highly praised by the many who attended the two performances this past summer. The Homeplace Board is pleased that Lindsey Wilson Director of Theater offered to bring the show back May 25. It's a spirited show, and the audience laughed and sang along with the cast.

The play is directed by Lindsey Wilson College's Assistant Professor of Theater Robert Brock with music direction by Associate Artistic Director Jeremy Cloyd. The performers are students from Lindsey Wilson's theater program and the community at large.

The dinner will be served beginning at 6:00 and the show begins at 7:00 Eastern Standard Time. Space is limited so make your reservations early by calling or e-mailing Phil Hanna at (270) 384-2894 or cphanna51@msn.com. Tickets for Smoke on the Mountain are $20 for the show and fish dinner or $10 for just the show.

Smoke on the Mountain songs

I'll Fly Away
The Church in the Wildwood
Built on the Rock
Wonderful Time up There
No Tears in Heaven
Christian Cowboy
I'll Never Die
Jesus Is Mine

I'll Live Again
I Wouldn't Take Nothing for My Journey Now
Angel Band
Bringing In the Sheaves
Whispering Hope
I'm Using My Bible for a Road Map
I'll Walk Every Step of the Way
I'm Taking a Flight
Smoke on the Mountain
When the Roll Is Called up Yonder

2019 Plow Day/Spring Festival

More than 25 horse and mule plow teams turned the soil for an estimated 2000+ folks who attended The Homeplace on Green River Plow Day/Spring Festival April 27. There were also 25+ antique tractors and more than 70 food and arts and crafts vendors, exhibitors and folks demonstrating everything from lard rendering to Whittling. There were hay rides, barrel train rides, a petting farm, live music in the Homeplace show barn, colonial reenactors sheep shearing and a host of other family entertainment. Below is a collection of photos of some of the festival activity. There are more festival photos posted on the Homeplace Web page, www.homeplacefarmky.org. Planning is already underway for the September 7 Fall Heritage Festival.

The Homeplace Plow Day/Spring Festival will be featured on Rural TV's popular Rural Heritage series Tuesday, May 14 at 3:30 CST and again Saturday, May 18 at 2:30 CST. Rural TV attended the festival and recorded event for their audience. A 23 minute professionally produced DVD of the Homeplace festival will be available later in May. Check at https://www.ruralheritage.com/new_rh_website/events/rfdtv.shtml for more information.

I'm Homer

Homer's Really short List

Homer has a lot to say this month, but no room for most of it. But a couple of things he insisted we remind you about. Our Fall Heritage Festival is scheduled for September 7. If you wish to be involved as a vendor, exhibitor or other wise, contact Anita Rees, acy12000@earthlink.com.

And don't forget you can always contact us and/or find more about Homeplace on Green River at our Facebook page, Homeplace on Green River Kentucky, or on the Web at www.homeplacefarmky.org.